

Things I don't like in you...

Baby just like every other thing our relationship is also not perfect. Today I Want to tell you not only How much I love you but also some things I don't like about you.

1. How you can get irritated when you are hungry, sleepy or frustrated and you shout on me even if I didn't do anything wrong.
2. How you sleep directly after eating.
3. How you don't even talk to me when you are mad at me.
4. How you make me feel you don't care when I cry after our fight and you are mad at me.(Although I know you care...)
5. I don't like when you start a movie , get bored and jump to another without completing while I got interest in that movie.
6. How you never express what you are thinking when you got any doubt on me or disliked anything I did.
7. How You gift me chocolates and in frustration you tell it was waste of money.(trust me I feel very bad when you tell waste of money , even if I have not forced you to give me chocolates in first place)....!
