

Hey handsome,

I cannot believe it's been 552 days since we first kissed. It feels like yesterday only, but at the same time it feels like I have known you all my life.

All this time we have gone through so many ups and down, but in the end we always stick around each other. Thank you for everything you have done for me — and thank you for proving our bond is stronger than every ups and downs.

We have thousands of memories, uncountable happy moments and soul touching hugs, kisses, hundreds of fights and thousands of patch ups :P ,

It's impossible to even count the smiles you put on my face and laughs that we have shared together.

I have written some letters for you. Which include 500 Reasons why I love you 45 letters for thank you and 7 things I don't like about you.

This shows in our journey there are approx. 2% things that I don't like about you but there are approx. 8% things that I want to thank you about and other 90% of reasons why I love you 😊

Our journey is not perfect. There were times when I don't like you but it's almost negligible in front of all the times that I enjoyed being with you.

Happy Valentine's Day baby...!
