Thank you note #5
Thank you for make me feel safe

Whenever I am with you make me feel safe. I know I will always have a shoulder to cry on.

Just having your arms around me can make me feel safe <3

Sometimes when I woke up at night after having bed dream, I see you beside me and I hug you tighter and get back to peaceful sleep again ☺

I know, NO one can ever hurt me as long as I have you by my side and I will never be alone.

Every time you kiss my forehead, I have this peaceful smile on my face knowing MY MAN is here with me , so I don't ever have to fight against world alone.

So thank you for being my safe-place <3

Love you bubu…!
